THE NATIONAL CONVERSATION

Discourse the Nation Deserves

The National Conversation, a joint production of The Wilson Center and NPR, provides a nonpartisan forum for deep dialogue and informed discussion of the most significant problems facing the nation and the world.

Please allow time on arrival at the building for routine security procedures. A photo ID is required. Individuals attending Woodrow Wilson Center events may be audiotaped, videotaped, or photographed during the course of a meeting, and by attending grant permission for their likenesses and the content of their comments, if any, to be broadcast, webcast, published, or otherwise reported or recorded.

THE WOODROW WILSON CENTER AT THE RONALD REAGAN BUILDING

By Metro, at Federal Triangle Station: Go to the top of the escalator at street level, cross Woodrow Wilson Plaza. Enter the Center's Lobby at the left (southeast) corner of the Ronald Reagan Building.

From Pennsylvania Avenue at 13th Street: Walk down Woodrow Wilson Plaza, the north-south extension of 13th Street beside the Ronald Reagan Building. Enter the Center's lobby at the far end of the plaza—the southeast corner of the building.

From 14th Street: Go through the Ronald Reagan Building along the right (south) side of the atrium and continue past it. At the hall's end, turn left and enter the Woodrow Wilson Memorial. Go through the Memorial. At its far end, turn right into the Center's lobby.

Public parking in the Ronald Reagan Building is on Pennsylvania Avenue at 13 1/2 Street.
